MBTAA UPDATE

STACY

DISCUSSION

Met with Senator Tolman's office and (new) Office of Civic Engagement (Ron Bell). Senator Tolman remains very supportive.

Rep. David Nagel of Lowell introduced legislation to ban alcohol ads from the T.

A recent Marin Institute report rated NYC & Boston as the worst offenders'. 75% of the states, in USA, have policies prohibiting alcohol ads on mass transit.

CONCLUSIONS	Stacy is writing an article as a guest columnist for CPC for the Chronicle.

UPDATES OF 21 PROOF & COMPLIANCE CHECKS

FRANK & GISELA

DISCUSSION	The CPC has formally requested that the License Commission require a "best practice" training for new manager/owners. 21 means 21 had an over-all compliance rate of 88%. Cambridge licensees had a 100% (11 of 11). Scheduling between youth, the police and the license commission prevented more from occurring. Frank identified the 5 trainings that occurred.2 of which came via the License Commission. There are 4 trainings scheduled for the next 4 weeks. Including one in Brockton.
-------------------	---

CONCLUSIONS	Compliance Check info should be disseminated to newspapers & on the City's web pages.
--------------------	---

Somerville had 2 articles regarding this. One was in the Boston Globe. There was also coverage on this in Waltham.
